

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS - 106

COLLECTION TITLE: Roxy Ruddle MacKenzie Collection

DATES: 1940, 1941, 1978

SIZE: 6 folders

DONOR: Roxy Ruddle MacKenzie

PROCESSED: Processed 09/10/2014

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

Shenandoah Conservatory of Music was founded in 1875 by A. P. Funkhouser and located in Dayton, VA. In the late 1950's the college moved to Winchester, VA and was renamed Shenandoah University.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection contains miscellaneous items related to Roxy Ruddle, born in Singers Glen, VA, while a student at Shenandoah College in Dayton. The collection includes clippings, photos, a college program and a 1940 yearbook, and two issues of the school newspaper, the Arrowhead (May 10 and June 7, 1941). (Newspapers were placed in HRHS-91 HRHS Newspaper Collection.)

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

Folder 1: 1940 Shenandoah College Year book, Zynodoa.

Folder 2: Brochures, 1940 – 1941

Folder 3: DNR clippings from 1941 concerning Shenandoah College

Folder 4: Reports and registration cards from Shenandoah College, 1940 – 1941

Folder 5: Bulletins & pamphlet Shenandoah College & Singers Glen School, 1941, 1978

Folder 6: Nine photos and one postcard