

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS - 111

COLLECTION TITLE: Abe and Edith Garber Collection

DATES: Unknown

SIZE: 1 (one) folder

DONOR: Mary E. Harshbarger, 1/30/2008

PROCESSED: Processed 09/10/2014 by K. Craun and R. Wright

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Edith C. Garber, (1903-1993) of Mount Clinton was the daughter of Solomon Garber and Elizabeth Virginia Senger Cline. She attended the State Teachers College and studied voice at Bridgewater College. Mrs. Garber was a painter and violinist. She was a member of the Muhlenberg Lutheran Church. She married Abram Lynwood Garber in 1924 and is buried at Raders Lutheran Church Cemetery in Timberville, VA.

SCOPE AND CONTENT: Miscellaneous items purchased at the Garber estate sale, mainly poems and prayers written by Edith Garber, one small scrapbook, and a story written about their son who was killed in World War II (housed this in separate interleaving folder).

COLLECTION INVENTORY:

New Campus/Congregational program

The Acts of the Apostles, March 1962

13 pages of prayers and poems

Music sheets

Picture of Garber family

Booklet of poems

3 sheets of meditations and prayers