

Archival and Manuscript Collections Finding Aid

ACCESSION No.: HRHS – 138

COLLECTION TITLE: Joseph Funk Man of Letters Collection

DATES: 1991

SIZE: One folder

DONOR: Gary McFarland Gloyd

PROCESSED: Processed November 24, 2015 by K. Craun

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

This is a compilation of letters written by Joseph Funk, Mountain Valley (Singers Glen), Virginia to his daughter May Kieffer and her family in Miami, Saline County, Missouri during the years 1837 to 1848.

Joseph Funk was a school master, author, publisher of music, land owner, farmer, minister, teacher of vocal music and a devotee of poetry. He was the head of a printing, publishing and binding company known as Joseph Funk and Sons located in Singers Glen, Virginia.

SCOPE AND CONTENT:

This collection consists of a draft copy of a publication titled Joseph Funk, Man of Letters by Gary McFarland Gloyd.

Note: This publication may not be copied. See note in administrative file from Eastern Mennonite University.

COLLECTION INVENTORY

Folder 1: Draft copy of Joseph Funk, Man of Letters